

Greg W. Comp

Name

Greg W. Comp

Consulting Specialties

TIPs Pastor

Vital Statistics

Born: December 17, 1953 in Ashtabula, Ohio

Marital Status: Married to Kathy (Fyock) Comp on May 18, 1974 in Conneautville, Pennsylvania

Children: Heather (Brett) Seybold / Grant (Brittany) Comp / Tyler (Anna) Comp

Education

Bachelor of Science - 1976

Cincinnati Christian University, Cincinnati, OH

Master of Theology – 15 credits

Cincinnati Bible Seminary, Cincinnati, OH

Certifications:

- Chaplain through Marketplace Chaplains
- Celebrant through In-sight Institute Certified Celebrants
- TIPs Pastor through New Church Specialties

Pastorates

1976-1980: Served as the Associate/Youth Pastor in Defiance, OH

1980-1984: Served as Associate/Youth Pastor in Carthage, MO

1984-1991: Served as Lead Pastor in Mechanicsville, VA

1991-2005: Served as Lead Pastor in Brazil, IN

2005-2008: Served as Lead Pastor in Londonderry, NH

Interims:

2008-2012: Returned to our home church in Conneautville, PA to help them recover from a difficult situation and two years without a Lead Pastor.

2012-2016: Moved to Markle, IN to restore church health and leadership confidence after several short term Pastors and lead them through a significant paradigm shift to prepare them for a younger long term Pastor.

2016-2018: Moved to Glasgow, Ky to restore church health and leadership confidence after the difficult and disruptive departure of their Lead Pastor.

2018-2020: I retired from vocational ministry and settled in Nashville, TN where all 3 of our children and their families had relocated for various reasons over the previous year. During this time I worked as a Front End Cashier at Publix Supermarket, a part-time Chaplain with Marketplace Chaplains, and an Event Planner & Certified Celebrant for Woodlawn Roesch Patton Funeral Home.

Fall of 2020 to present: I am in my first assignment with New Church Specialties (NCS) in Meridian, MS

