TIPs Pastor

When God called me into ministry during my college years, the imprint on my mind and spirit was ‘Take care of my people, and I will take care of you.’ Almost 50 years later, I have served in the spirit of that covenant. I was a local church pastor in the Church of God (Anderson) for 30 years, followed by 10 years as the Regional Pastor for Church of God Ministries in Arizona. After my retirement from that role in 2015, I served as Discipleship Pastor in a local church in Arizona. I was then introduced to the TIPS ministry, and accepted my first assignment to serve at Spokane Valley Church of the Nazarene in Washington during 2018.

I am a graduate of Anderson University (BA), Anderson School of Theology (M-Div), and Asbury Seminary (DMin.). I have been married to my wife Leatha for 46 years. We have two married children and two grandsons. I remain passionate about ministry and continue to serve in teaching, coaching, and interim roles as God opens new doors in this season.
