

George & Margaret Lincoln

Name	Consulting Specialties
George & Margaret Lincoln	TIP's Pastors

George and Margaret are both ordained Elders in the Church of the Nazarene. Both attended Nazarene Bible College, but George went on to Northwest Nazarene University where he earned his Master's in Pastoral Ministry. Together they have served as staff pastors and co-lead pastors in churches across Central California and in Oregon and have been TIPs pastors since 2019.

Before answering the call to pastoral ministry, George spent 20 years serving in the military. After retiring from the military, he went on to work bi-vocationally in the US Postal Service while serving churches in Central California. He is an avid reader, fisherman and baseball fan.

Margaret had an extensive background in lay leadership before answering the call to pastoral ministry. She volunteered her time to several churches while homeschooling their children. After their children graduated, Margaret went on to work within the tax industry where she was a certified tax preparer and tax preparation instructor, working bi-vocationally for several years while serving churches in Central California. Margaret's hobbies include playing games, traveling, and cooking.

Together, George and Margaret have two married children, three granddaughters and one grandson.
