TIPS Pastor

Michael and Dee Ann have been married for 45 years. They retired December 2021, after 41 years in Pastoral ministry to work with their non-profit called The Barn Ministry and Shepherd's Hope.

They also joined Tips in January 2022.

The Page's attended Southern Nazarene University in Bethany Oklahoma, graduating in 1977.

Michael majored in Religion and Dee Ann in business. Michael has his Masters from Olivet Nazarene University in Pastoral Counseling.

They have three sons. His twins Jake and Jeremy are Pastors in the Nazarene denomination. Jake and Mimi Page (2 children) serve as Missionaries in Thailand. Jeremy and Lynette (3 children) serve as Lead Pastor's in Fort Worth Texas. Donlan and Meredith (4 children) live in Scottsdale Arizona. Donlan is Dean of Students and Academics of a new Christian College in Phoenix Arizona.

Michael spent the last 25 years of his ministry pastoring churches between 500-600. Their last 10 years were at Lubbock First Nazarene. They retired and stayed in Lubbock, where they bought 10 acres of land, build a barn house. They have made it available for Pastors and Missionaries for retreats and or a place to come for encouragement. Along with retire District Superintendent David Ralph, they started another non-profit called Shepherd's Hope. There is 13 on the staff, along with a counselor to come alongside Ministry Servants to encourage and support.

Michael adopted this theme for his ministry. Love, Accept, Forgive and when in doubt, Hug.

Michael loves being a Shepherd and encouraging God's people.
