Ministry Consultant and Church of God TIPS Coordinator

Bob Moss is an energetic leader and communicator dedicated to introducing others to the transforming love of Jesus Christ. A hallmark of his ministry is his deep love for people expressed through a pastor's heart.

He is a former Senior Executive with Church of God Ministries in Anderson, Indiana and currently serves as the Church of God coordinator for Transitional Interim Pastor Services (TIPS). Bob has served as a lead pastor in several different regions of the country, including congregations in Michigan, Ohio, Washington, and Wyoming. He has developed meaningful relationships with many pastors across the country and has walked with many as a coach and mentor. He is a frequent guest speaker at conferences, and pastors' gatherings.

In addition to Bob's heart for pastors, he has been at the forefront of change and growth at the regional and national church. He served as the state minister for the Church of God congregations in Indiana and led with distinction as a two-term chairman of the North American General Assembly of the Church of God. Internationally, his ministry has extended to four continents. He is the author of two books published by Warner Press.

Bob is an alumnus of Warner Pacific University and the Anderson University School of Theology. He and his wife Renée have three married adult children and eight grandchildren.
